EASTER AND THE WAR

The thought of a declaration of war in connection with the celebration of Easter is almost revolting, the one being a fiat of death, the other a declaration of life everlasting; but are they so incongruous after all?

Jesus was the God of the poor and lowly, of the oppressed. He came to loose prison bonds, to lift grievous burdens from the poor and he died a violent death inspired by the hatred and bigotry of the leaders of his race who were looking for a temporal ruler. He himself said he came not to bring peace but the sword.

The early followers of Christ in their zeal to emulate his example courted martyrdom. All down the ages men have died that the generations who followed them might have life in greater abundance, might have a larger measure of liberty and opportunity. In this world war we who have stood apart until now have not always been clear as to the exact merits of each side nor have we been able to forecast a decisive victory to either, but the handwriting on the wall now seems to be saying to the autocratic rulers of Europe, "Thou hast been weighed in the balance and found wanting." England may not win, Germany may not win, but it begins to look as though the people may win to a new democracy which will abolish the overlords who make war to satisfy their greed for empire at the expense of their subjects. Russia has deposed a Czar, Germany may depose an Emperor and the future may bring forth a United States of Europe in which the people will come into their rightful heritage. In the light of such a vision, the humble soldiers in the blood drenched fields, on whichever side they fight, shine forth as the noble instruments in a divine plan which may change the face of the world. It may bring death to Monarchies but if it does it will bring resurrection to the liberties and higher ideals of the people and help to establish Christ's Kingdom on earth.

K. P. NEWS

The K. P.'s held their customary meeting Thursday evening and after the regular lodge work discussed arrangements for participating in the ritualistic contest in which all the lodges in Southern California will take part. A committee was appointed which included George Stokes, Noble Ripley and Ed Shipman to prepare for the reception of the D. O. K. K's who will visit the lodge tonight with a 24-piece band and a bunch of entertainers.

The monthly dance came off last Friday evening with an attendance of about thirty couples who had a royal good time.

REVIVAL MEETINGS

Revival services in which the Methodist and Presbyterian churches of Tropico will unite, will begin April 29th and will be conducted by Evangelists Clark and Woods for three weeks. Mr. Clark, the preacher, is said to be a man of dramatic power who was once on the stage. He is also a fine musician, playing several instruments. Singing will be led by Mr. Woods.

CERRITOS P. T. A.

Because this is vacation week, the Cerritos P. T. A. held what might be termed an impromptu meeting last Friday afternoon. Readings from "The American Institute of Child Life" were given by Mesdames Meagher, Goodrich and Richardson. Coffee and cake were served. The chief item of business transacted was selection of nomineec for offices for the coming year. Mrs. Gaarder declared her inability to again serve the association as President and Mrs. Hartley Shaw was nominated for the office. Other nominees were: Mrs. Gregory, vice president; Mrs. Meagher, recording secretary; Miss Losthouse, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Cross, treasurer.

PRESBYTERIAN ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Presbyterian church last week Wednesday was a most enthusiastic affair. All reports were excellent, especially the one on benevolences which showed that the church had raised $750 for this purpose besides the $1700 expended for regular church expenses. Dr. L. E. Richardson was elected to fill the vacancy on the Board of Trustees and by vote of the meeting S. C. Richardson succeeded himself on the Board of Elders. At the supper covers were laid for 86 church members and their families. The program was concluded by Pastor Rider who gave a brief talk on prospects and plans for the future.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES

While Irving Oliver, candidate for membership on the School Board of Tropico has been a resident of our city for eleven years and active in civic affairs, it will be of interest to many citizens to know that he is a true blue American whose forbears came to the "stern and rockbound coast" in the third voyage of the Mayflower and were conspicuously identified with the development of the Massachusetts commonwealth, particularly along educational lines. He was born in the old college town of Amherst, Massachusetts, and describes himself as "A blue-bellied Yankee." For two years he served Tropico as city trustee and after his retirement from that office was appointed to fill the unexpired term on the School Board of Mr. Rich, who died in office. Mr. Oliver is therefore a candidate to succeed himself. He has children in the schools and is deeply interested in their welfare. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees of Union High School and in a position to serve both schools advantageously, particularly in the purchase of supplies which he says can be bought at a much lower figure when the orders are combined. The election will take place April 6th. Mr. Dan Campbell is a candidate for membership on the High School Board. These are important offices and voters should show they are not indifferent by going to the polls and depositing ballots for the candidates they wish to see in office.

PLAYGROUND CARNIVAL

Mrs. Bacon, who is at the head of the committee of arrangements for the Playground Carnival reports splendid co- operation on the part of the Cerritos school. Miss Mitchell is arranging for a pageant of months, which will mean descriptive music, dancing and costuming adapted to the character of each month. May, for instance, will have a maypole dance and a presiding queen. December will suggest the exit of the old and the entrance of the new year.

Mrs. Bacon also reports a queen contest in prospect, though candidates have not yet been selected.

The U and I Club has agreed to be responsible for the Baby Show.

Mrs. Keller of the Keller School of Dramatic Art and Dancing will contribute to the evening program.

Sons of Veterans are also planning something not yet announced.

Mr. A. J. McLeod of Hollywood has bought an interest in the Tropico-Glendale Lumber Company of West Tropico avenue, and asumed the management of the company April first. He has long been a resident of Southern California and hopes to build up a good local trade.

Mrs. Young declares that hundreds of bakers will go out of business unless there is a change in conditions that that bread may advance to 15c a loaf.

NEW MARKET

Mr. Robert Danner has taken space in the Tropico Mercantile Store and will open a market there the latter part of this week. He has been in the meat business before in Tropico and needs no introduction. It will differ from his last business venture however, being a basket market on a strictly cash basis, which he declares will enable him to sell at Los Angeles prices. Of course deliveries will be made to patrons who cannot call for their purchases, but a charge will be made for the service. Mr. Danner believes that there are many people in our city who will appreciate the chance to secure the low prices he will be able to make by putting his business on the basis described.

Mr. Harry Cutting, who formerly resided in Tropico but who has been a resident of Los Angeles for some time, has returned to this city and will be employed in the Valley Press Print Shop.

Mr. Rush Quesinberry of Oregon, who lives at Hotel Tropico and is an employe of the Tile Factory expects at any moment to be recalled to the ranks in the United States Marines in which he has seen three years' service. He is not eager to go but willing to serve his country if needed. If summoned he will have to return to Centralia, Washington, where he enlisted.

Mr. Edward Weston has completed improvements in his studio on Brand Boulevard which have made it very attractive. His operating room has been enlarged and a workroom has been added at the rear. While much of his work is done away from home, he has many appointments at the studio.

The Board of Directors of the Thursday Club met Friday afternoon and voted to endorse Mrs. Mushet as candidate for the presidency of the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kesler of Los Angeles have rented part of the Rice house on the corner of Tropico and Central avenues and plan to spend two or three months in Tropico. Mr. Kesler is cashier of the Security Bank. He and Mrs. Kesler are friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gallup of 125 North Central avenue.

Dr. Mabry reports all measles routed from Tropico. Mumps are still here but he hopes to banish them also. Tropico, he declares, is astonishingly healthy and undeservedly so considering the general carelessness of its people in matters affecting health.

Mr. P. O. Snyder of Brand boulevard was quite ill last week but is out again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Clark have moved from the De Luxe Apartments in the Bank Building to their new home at 114 East Laurel.

Speaking about war, in a letter received by Mr. John A. Logan last week, Burt Richardson writes: "It looks as though we would have war soon. Practically all the students want war if we are to have it sooner or later. If it looks like a real war I am going to join the infantry right at first and get a lieutenant's job then. But if this war is to be a joke, I am not going to get mixed up with it."

The Bible study class of the Epworth League will meet Friday night at the home of Rev. Don S. Ford instead of Thursday evening.

Three Weeks.

The terms "calf week," "cow week" and "bull week" are applied in many of England's great industrial centers to the three weeks before the Christmas holiday week. In "calf week" the men work time and a third, in "cow week" time and two-thirds and in "bull week" double time in order to make up for loss of output caused by the Christmas holidays.

TORRENS LAW

In an address upon the Torrens law, before the Federal Farm Loan Board, at Washington, Walter R. Taylor, of Michigan, said, in part, as follows:

"Perhaps no other single institution in this country has as much money invested in farm mortgages as the Union Central Life Insurance Co., of Cincinnati, and I am personally informed by its officers that not one of those mortgages is based on a Torrens certificate, and that none is likely to be.

"The late R. Prindiville, of Chicago, wrote the New York commission as follows:

" 'The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, which I represented here in all its real estate loans, will not accept any title under the Torrens law, and will not make a loan on any property that has been entered for registration under it.'

"James B. Forgan, President of the First National Bank of Chicago, also wrote to the New York commission:

" 'The Torrens law is not considered an element in the real estate situation in Cook county. Very few people take advantage of the system, and those mainly having defective titles which cannot be merchandized in ordinary ways.'

"Torrens officials and advocates in Chicago are able to name many individual and financial concerns loaning on registered titles, but do not explain that in many if not most of these cases the additional protection of a guarantee policy from a large title corporation is required.

"The view of these large investors, whether sound or not, cannot fail to exert a powerful influence with those who may be expected to buy Farm Loan Bonds. And, even if the bonds could be sold without difficulty, may we respectfully suggest that in bringing the fullest possible benefits of this act to the farmer, and in making of this governmental project the success we hope it may become, it will be task enough to get farmers to accept the necessary routine of formality and co-operative effort which goes with the organization of farm loan associations and the procuring of loans, without at the same time forcing him into court to surrender himself and his property to this arbitrary, monarchial and revolutionary system.

"For he must give up all future fredom of action, he cannot thereafter convey his property by deed, his right to contract concerning it can only be achieved by the help of the Registrar and the payment of his fees—the sacred right of adverse possession which safeguards thousands of homes must be forever surrendered—and for what? For a certificate which cannot be more than prima facie evidence of title and which can only be accepted after at least as much investigation of what is back of it as goes with the examination of a title in any case."

DEATH OF DANIEL HEALD

Last Monday afternoon the body of Daniel Heald was laid to rest in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Death came to him Thursday night as a release after months of suffering. He, was a strong believer in immortality and intercommunion and had been an admiring student of the works of Dr. J. M. Peebles; and it was a great satisfaction to his family, therefore, to secure Dr. Peebles to conduct the funeral services, which were held Monday afternoon in the Scovern, Letton, Frey parlors. Daniel Heald was born on a farm near Temple, New Hampshire in 1834. In 1861 he volunteered for the civil war in Company C of the Eleventh New Hampshire Volunteers and served for three years. In 1867 he moved to Iowa where he engaged in farming for a few years, retiring from that to engage in a jewelry business which he conducted for thirty years. In 1900 he moved to Glendale and bought a ranch, a part of which is now occupied by Thornycroft Hospital.

Dr. Peebles, who lives in Highland Park, is a world traveler and writer of religious philosophy. Though ninety-six years of age he is a vigorous man in full possession of all his faculties. His talk was most comforting. To him there is no death but rather a new birth into better and higher conditions. His foster son, Mr. Soudall, a fine vocalist, sang "Beautiful Isle of somewhere" and "Perfect Day."

Daniel Heald is survived by a widow, a son, W. E. Heald, in business in Tropico, a daughter, Millie Heald, and a sister, Mrs. Emogene Hadley, residing in Massachusetts.

ZELLA M. STARR DIES

Mrs. Zella M. Starr of 616 Vassar Court, passed away at the Clara Barton Hospital in Los Angeles, March 31st at the age of 58. She has for three years been a resident of Tropico and will be sincerely mourned by the friends she made here. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Pulliam Parlors in Glendale after which the remains were taken to Los Angeles for cremation.

His Tribute to Beethoven.

Brahms dined one day with one of his fanatic admirers, and the latter, knowing the master's predilection for fine wine, had a bottle of renowned quality brought to the table toward the end of the repast. "This," he exclaimed, "is the Brahms among my wines!"

The guest sipped of it, saying: "Excellent, wonderful! Now, bring on your Beethoven!"

Because Adler-i-ka flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUCIKEST action of anything we ever sold. A second communication was from the President of the Board of Trustees of Emeryville, containing a protest against Assembly Bill 1380, providing for a two-platoon system in cities having paid fire departments and asking Tropico to protest. Moved by Henry that the City Clerk be instructed to write each member of the Senate and Assembly for the Los Angeles district asking him to use his influence against the passage of the bill. "Tropico" on City Hall

Under the call for committee reports President Peters reported the completion of the work of placing the name "Tropico" in large letters on the City Hall, at a cost of 8.25.

Relative to the fire districts he recommended establishing two, one covering both sides of San Fernando Boulevard between Tropico and Central; the other on Brand Boulevard between Park and Acacia.

R. R. Crossings

Concerning the recommendations of the Railway Commission relative to warning signs at railway crossings, also referred to Mr. Peters, he reported that in his judgment advance warning signs were unnecessary at Brand and Tropico, at Brand and Park, at Brand and the S. P. crossing and at Tropico and S. P. crossing, but recommended that one advance sign be placed at Park and the S. P. crossing, and two advance signs at Cypress and Brand, or three signs at a cost of $3.00 each.

Fire Districts

There was some discussion of Mr. Peters' recommendations as to fire districts and on motion of Alspach, seconded by Seal, the Board voted to take up the matter at the next meeting and invite the business men in the proposed districts to offer any protests which they may desire to make at that time.

The Board then adjorned.

WORK AT THE TILE FACTORY

Mr. Balch, manager of the Pacific Tile Works, states that the talc mill was started last week and is operating regularly. The material comes from the Company's mines in Death's Valley and the product is shipped to the east.

The works are turning out all the bricks they need for their own improvements but have not yet begun to manufacture for sale. They are negotiating with the Southern Pacific for rates and as soon as a satisfactory adjustment is reached, the output will increase. This will mean more work for Tropico men.

Relative to the possible effect of war on the business of the Tile Works Mr. Balch said: "I do not anticipate any largely increased demand. While there may be considerable call for tile to be used in draining camp sites and in building military roads, the demand from California municipalities will probably fall off."
